These events are free and open to all MU students, faculty, and staff.

April 2
SOCIAL MEDIA CAMPAIGN
All of April
Follow us @RSVPCenter across platforms and join in to raise awareness surrounding sexual assault!

April 6
GREEN DOT CONFERENCE
12:30 - 4:30 p.m.
TBD
The spring Green Dot Conference is part of the overall goal to end violence through the practice of bystander intervention. Bring a friend and learn both proactive and reactive strategies!

April 8
OPEN YOGA
Noon - 1 p.m.
RSVP CENTER
Yoga is an ancient practice designed to help individuals cultivate ways to achieve balance and well being. Allow yourself this time to honor your mind, body, and spirit and create the space needed to work through any trauma you carry.

April 10
YOU HAVE OPTIONS
4 - 6 p.m.
RSVP CENTER
You Have Options is a resource-focused presentation presented by staff from the RSVP Center and the Office for Civil Rights & Title IX. The goal of the presentation is to ensure those directly and indirectly affected by power-based personal violence are aware of their campus and community resources.

April 11
LET'S TALK ABOUT IT
5:30 - 6:30 p.m.
RSVP CENTER
Join the RSVP Center to discuss popular music, TV, movies and references and the impact they have on rape culture and violence prevention efforts.

April 15
SEXUAL VIOLENCE LEGAL PANEL
6:30 - 8:30 p.m.
RSVP CENTER
The purpose of the presentation is to educate individuals about methods of seeking help and resources available to those affected by intimate partner violence. A panel of legal experts will talk about their own experiences with the justice system, and answer any of your questions.

April 16
TAKE BACK THE NIGHT
6 - 9 p.m.
TRADITIONS PLAZA
Join together in the mission to end harassment and sexual assault. The Mizzou community will march through campus to honor survivors' voices, hold a vigil to remember victims, and speak out about personal experiences to shatter the silence around sexual and intimate partner violence. Hosted by S.T.A.R.S.

April 17
SEXUAL VIOLENCE MEDICAL PANEL
6:30 - 8:30 p.m.
RSVP CENTER
Join the RSVP Peer Educators for a discussion about the medical services available to those experiencing relationship and/or sexual violence. A panel of medical staff, advocates and counselors will answer questions about these issues.

April 22
OPEN YOGA
Noon - 1 p.m.
RSVP CENTER
Yoga is an ancient practice designed to help individuals cultivate ways to achieve balance and well being. Allow yourself this time to honor your mind, body, and spirit and create the space needed to work through any trauma you carry.

April 25
DENIM DAY
10 a.m. - 2 p.m.
MU STUDENT CENTER
Denim Day is a call to action for all people to come together by wearing jeans/denim on this day and picking up information at the tabling event in the Triangle space in the MU Student Center.

April 29
OPEN YOGA
Noon - 1 p.m.
RSVP CENTER
Yoga is an ancient practice designed to help individuals cultivate ways to achieve balance and well being. Allow yourself this time to honor your mind, body, and spirit and create the space needed to work through any trauma you carry.

We are committed to ensuring our events are accessible and inclusive. Please contact us at least a week in advance at RSVP@missouri.edu if you anticipate barriers to your participation.

Visit bit.ly/MUSAAM2019 for all our Sexual Assault Awareness Month events.

Relationship and Sexual Violence Prevention Center
University of Missouri