COOPER’S LANDING
Located on the Missouri River, Cooper’s Landing offers campgrounds, lodge, country store, restaurant, live music and an entertainment center. cooperslandingmo.com.

AFRICAN AMERICAN HERITAGE TRAIL
The trail, a walking route winding through the heart of the city, honors central Columbia’s rich black history with a total of 36 sites. bit.ly/comoaaht.

COLUMBIA CITY PARKS AND TRAILS
Venture out to Douglass Park, Stephen’s Lake Park, Capen Park or one of the many others connected by trails around the city. Hop on your bike or run along the MKT and/or Katy Trails, converted from railroads that used to run through town. Enjoy swimming, fishing, climbing and more. como.gov/parksandrec.

STEPHEN’S LAKE PARK
A 116-acre nature area near campus that offers swimming, fishing and lots of trails. bit.ly/comoslp.

FINGER LAKES STATE PARK
Whether it’s fishing, biking or riding ATVs, you can do it all here. This state park is located just north of Columbia. mostateparks.com/park/finger-lakes-state-park.

SHELTER GARDENS
While Mizzou’s campus is a botanic garden, there’s a second one just down the road! Enjoy this lovely green space in the heart of Columbia. shelterinsurance.com/aboutshelter/sheltergardens.

THE PINNACLES
Come explore the limestone rock formations and fossils left behind when seas retreated millions of years ago. Enjoy wildlife and scenery looking out over surrounding creeks. nature.mdc.mo.gov/discover-nature/places/pinnacles.

THE BIG TREE
Check out this 400-year-old massive national champion Burr Oak that’s survived drought, flood, storms and more. atlasobscura.com/places/mcbaine-bur-oak.

Columbia is home to many cultural, historic and natural spaces.
